Start: Monday 10th June 14.00 pm.

Programme Instructions:

The full programme is attached.

Participants should come prepared with the basic information ready to share ideas and discuss with others on the following themes:

- An understanding of the context for refugees in their country, and particularly:
- The situation of young refugees as this is a specific focus of the project
- Cross- cultural communication issues.
- Piloting experiences
- Obstacles to employment
- An understanding of what resources and projects are already in place that might offer network or collaboration opportunities
- Any examples of good practice in engaging refugees from other contexts

Participants should bring or share electronically a sample of a first attempt at recording a dignity diary. This can be a short audio recorded on a mobile and transferred to a medium we can share.

Participants who are not from the consortium partner organisations should be briefed on what are the outline details of plans for pilots, proposal for ensuring sustainability & replication, and ideas for ongoing dissemination as this will be discussed.
